The Story of The Lion and The Fish: Episode 10

2. badmouth= criticize badly
3. selfish = only thinking about yourself
4. grab = take hold of
5. claw = nail
6. jaw = the lower part of your face which moves when you open your mouth
7. mighty = powerful
8. roar = make a deep, loud sound

10. den = the home of particular types of wild animals

The following dialogue is the conversation between the Lion (L) and the Fish (F).

L: Hi, little fish! I've got bad news for you. Our marriage is impossible.

F: What do you mean? What made you change your mind?

L: I was very serious in marrying you, but now I'm having second thoughts.

F: Did somebody bad-mouth me?

L: Not at all. The point is you are a fish and use gills to breathe, but I am a mammal and use lungs to breathe. If you leave the water, you will die, and if I stay in the water long, I will die.

F: So one of us has to die, and I think it should be you to die. I won't die for you.

L: You are very selfish. You only think about yourself, so now get ready to die.

The lion grabbed the fish between his strong claws, opened his mighty jaws and downed the little fish in a flash.

The lion roared loudly and went back to his den where he belonged.
